The Pusion Programme. of action in the coming contest. Another the summit, between the two rivers, there is and every artifice is to be resorted to, to the Kaukakee, and about eight feet to the again organize a majority against the Democ. Iroquois. This summit is uniformly marshy. taoy. No set of principles bind them to. The country between the summit and the jects of their leaders. State. They are to be instructed, drilled, and Salem Railroad, led him. and directed in all their duties by their chiefs The soil north of the Wabash is a sandy their individual cases. They will all be ar- On the whole, we can successfully produce ranged and cut and dried in the dark lantern in this State more varieties of agricultural balls, long before the meeting of the general product, than can any other state in the Un-Pusion convention of the 1st of May.

shall convene at Indianapolis, it has an easy ple of any other State. And we can, with and well-understood task to perform. It will the facilities for reaching market, afforded proceed to indorse all that the Temperance by our railroads, command prices abundantconvention may have adopted in the shape ly satisfactory to those most ambitious of of sentiments, resolutions, etc. Next the profit. enti-Nebraska Abolition dectrine, as present- There is no occasion for our people to emed by Senator Wilson of Massachusetts, will igrate in pursuit of agricultural facilities betbe incorporated, and all other isms and fac- ter than we have at home. tions will be encouraged and courted. Religions intolerance will again be invoked and new editors are to be the pliant tools of the functical prejudice stirred up. The grand fi- bogus Democracy, and that even Professor Dale will be the ratification of the nomina- | Larrabee is to prostitute his talents to the tions which have already been made by the small business of writing editorials under the Know Nothings, and two-thirds of the simthe-minded Fusionists will be made to believe that they have controlled and settled the business of the convention and nomina- wholly mistakes both the position of the ted its candidates, when, in reality, they were new Editor, and the character of the Indiana cretiy determined before by the sons of in- a gentleman so long "under the censorship visible Sam.

These are the designs of the Freionists to sustain themselves, but they will most sig- sorship seems continued with even greater rally fail. They will not be able again to intensity, with only a change of some indientrap the people into their Know Nothing vidual members of the "clique," should alliances. They forget that the public have while Editor of the Gazette, suspect other seen "Bam" in all of his scenes of not, arson, Editors of having fallen into the same misbloodshed and murder. They forget that fortune. No "clique" of politicians, "cormany really sincerely pious and christian rupt" or otherwise, has had anything whattaen who were misled by their tirades against ever to do with the affairs of the Sentinel in Catholic influences, and foreign domination, its late transfer. The change of proprietors have dissipated the veil that for awhile ob- was a simple business transaction. The Ediscured the correctness of their vision; they tors are subject to no censorship, no control, forget that a very large number of National no influence whatever, but their own reason Whigs, who abhor their doctrines of Aboli- and judgment. Their "editorials" will be tion disunion will never again act with them written from their own instinctive percep politically. They must fail in their efforts to tions of truth, and of right, and of justice. their enemies, and to stand firm in support fal defender of Democratic measures.

The Agricultural Resources of In-

of correct principles.

and exemption from changes? Surely not nies and the most infamous falsehoods. in the Atlantic States, nor on the plains fur- The editor of the New Albany Tribune. ther west. Iowa suffers from sudden chan- with his usual malevolence, published an argez, and from high winds, far more than does ticle written by a vagabond Fasionist at Indians. The States and Territories of the Greencastle named, we believe, PATRICK, in Northwest, Wisconsin and Minnesots, are in which Col. WALKER was charged with a heia latitude too high for the successful raising nous crime. The editor of the Tribune perof our most valuable productions, and Kan- petrated a willing falsehood when he copied ses, Nebrasko, and the whole country west the article; but when he saw it disputed by of the Mississippi, and south of the Missouri, the Journal of Lafayette, and the Journal of seem liable to extreme drouth, which must this city, both papers of his own party, (but prove a serious injury to their agricultural we are pleased to say, having men for their

tion of Indian corn, nor too far South for wheat, while we are in the very latitude in which all the grasses and most of the fruits

We have every variety of soil, except castle paper. ten hear our own citizens describing the soil the Black Republican nemination for Lieupor variety, that we have not, though we ofin some parts of the State as being poor .-They would not think any soil in Indiana poor, could they but once look on the soil of and lend himself as a willing medium for the many parts of the Atlantic States. We have circulation of a libel, for which, were the however some land in the Southern counties not very fertile. On the hills along the riv. tice would mulet him in damages. Fair play ers in the Southern counties there is a hard is all that Mr. WALKER asks-he is able to sub-soil of clay too near the surface. Even defend himself, as the editor of the New Alhard, clay sub-soll, might be rendered fertile nuserupulous, wholesale batch of falsehoods. duply by deep ploughing.

to grass, grain, and fruit. As you approach the Wabash, you pass, at a distance varying from six to thirty miles south of the river, the line dividing the timber from the priarie country. South of that line the whole country, except the portions cleared for farms, which comprises on the average not more than one quarter of each farm, is very heavily timbered. North of the line, the country is beautifully varied by prairies and groves of timber. The timber porth of the Wabash, or rather north of the line of division, which pps, as we have said, a few mlles south of the river, differs wholly from that south. It consists not of dense forests, but of heautiful ing line. and timber in the northern and north-western of politics; and the best judge of Talacco in counties of the State are just about suitable ready for the plough, and the groves are at hand for furnishing fencing and fuel. The marshy portions of Northern Indiana near pearly all be drained, and become the They have erected an ice monument on the Kankakee, supposed by some to be irreclaimable, are nearly all susceptible of the most complete drainage, and when drained, they will prove of exhaustless fertility .-This is particularly true of that extensive and nearly unsettled tract of country lying The Fusionists have marked out their plan between the Kankakee and Iroquois. From peneral amalgamation of isms is intended, a fall of about ton feet to the mile towards gather; no questions of National or State rivers consists of terraces of table land, and policy govern their conduct. They will at- basins. Over these terraces the waters from tempt cohesion until after the election, and the elevated marshes creep, and for want of then explode again, as they did in 1854 - a regular channel, they spread out and fill up

If they can procure office and its emplu- the basins, and make the whole country wet. ments, they will have attained the great eb. A few ditches from the summit to the river would render the whole country dry enough The first public movement is the Temper- for all agricultural purposes. And yet suance Convention of the 22d February. It perficial observers suppose that the water will assemble and pass its resolutions, ac- from the river submerges these lands, and cording to order. After it shall have adjourn- renders them wet. Even the intelligent agad, probably some one of the other factions ricultural editor of the Indiana Journal fell may in like manner assemble and dilate into this error but a few weeks since. Let upon the Nebraska question and its correla- him apply his level to the country on either tives. The order has already gone forth, slope of the Kankakee, and he would soon that a reorganization of the Know Nothing discover the mistake into which appearances, order is to be had in every county of the during a rapid ride over the New Albany and traveling missionaries and emissaries, in loam, very easy of cultivation, and of surthe selection of candidates for office at the passing fertility. It produces, when drained, October election, and for the Senatorial seats and brought under cultivation, all the variewill be vacant at Washington city .- ties of vegetation natural to the climate, and in quantities surprising to those who have never studied the capabilities of sandy loans. ion. We can cultivate our soil with as little When the miscalled People's convention expense of labor and capital as can the peo-

From the foregoing we infer that the - Cincinnati Gazette.

The Editor of the Gazette seems to misunderstand the meaning of our pradecessor, and of a clique of corrupt politicians," as he was while Editor of the Boston Atlas, which cen-delude Temperance Democrats by their out- The Indiana Democracy will neither subcry against the moral feelings of the democ- mit itself, nor allow its organs to submit to tacy. The prestige of their success has van- any clique whatever. It requires of the Ediished. The elections throughout the State tors of its papers only a fair, candid, and re-Lave given the strongest proof that the peo- liable course. There is among the Democtie are again aroused to a vigorous defence of racy of this State no sectionalism, no bigotry, their rights, and that the democracy are in no fauaticism, no one-idea-ism. To give such a majority as to leave no doubt of its entire satisfaction, and to secure the cordial success when the day of trial shall come. It support of the Democracy of the State, the is the duty of the people to watch with vigilonce, the machinations and stratagems of der of Democratic principles, and the faith-

Some unscrupulous Abolitionist, writiog from Vernon, Ind., to the editor of the No State in the Union, if any country on the Journal, attempts to array the clergy against globe, of equal extent with Indiana, presents Col. John C. Walken, the Democratic cangreater agricultural advantages. Situated didate for Lieutenant Governor. The wrimidway between the equator and the arctic ter, we venture, has not one-eighth part the circle, and protected by the Alleghenies from moral character of Mr. WALKER, nor can be the storms of the Atlantic coast, and at too honorably lay claim to one-eighth the moral great a distance from the great table lands integrity of that gentleman. Wherever Mr. beyond the Mississippi to be affected by the WALKER is known, he is respected and ap- jayette Journal. western winds, our State enjoys as fine a cli- preciated for his excellent moral and social state as can be found in the world. It is true qualities, and all charges to the contrary of we are subject to changes of Jemperature this made against him by the Fusion, Aboliseeming to us sudden, but where would we tion, mongrel press, are but the basest calumeditors of far more honor,) and the editor of We are not too far North for the produc- one of which was an eye-witness to the unfortunate difficulty so distorted by PATRICE, he fully demonstrates his moan, contemptible, and slanderous proclivities by refusing to correct the libel lie published from the Green-

Gngoo, we are aware, is an expectant of tenant Governor, but this should not induce him to forfeit all regard for political honesty, "goose worth the placking," a court of justhose lands, however, with a thin soil, and bany Tribune may soon find out. But the and slanders hatched up against him, are As you leave the Ohio and advance to- neither the emanations of honest men, nor wards the Cumberland road, the soil becomes the weapons of reason-they are only the Postmaster. loeper and better, and is admirably adapted arguments of such gutter politicians as Mit. TON GREGO and AL. PATRICK-men who have wormed through all thefilth, and wallowed among all the stick pots of political degradation, until, like rhe skunk, they emit po odors except those the most offensive to the > postrils of decent men. OF BACON, of the Manumoth Hoosier things Clothing Store, is "spreading"-doing a regnlar Young America business. An excellent feature of his establishment is, that he takes persons' measures here and has their garments manufactured, if they so desire, at New York. Bacon is driving trade in the cloth. day of February, goves, as if planted by the wand of man for PERSONAL -SULGROVE, of the Indiana ina State Council of Virginia. a beautiful park. The proportions of prairie Journal, is a gentleman and a scholar, outside the State. - La Parte Times. for agricultural purposes. The prairies are tor; but did'nt you mean he was one of the BERRY is a regular good fellow, Docbest judges of the "fluid extract" of Indiana each, Oregon apples at from $8 to $12 per corn in the State?

most fertile of soils. The lands bordering at St. Louis to the memory of De Soto.

Colfax, of this State, is ridiculed as weak mion of Mr. Colfax, his head hasn't room it publicity. or a correct idea. If his brains were scooped out and his skull turned into a mush pot, it would not hold enough to feed a dyspeptic "chig er." A "pup" of tolerable appetite would starve to death on such mouthfuls as he could lap out of it. Touching the "miror" thus "hung up for Mr. Colfax to look at himself" in, we may suggest that the author might have seen a " mirror " of himself "hung up" at Lafavette a couple of weeks

Now it strikes us that the editor of the ror," that he naturally enough concludes his associates, is Joseph A. Wright, the preevery one else should do the same thing- sent Governor. hence his gallows allusion. Little Popinjay cently delivered before the New York Agriprocurement of a post office at some railroad his name and sesvices. In the West, indeed, man who has usurped Sulgnove's place, that in the valley of the Mississippi. lating in the Ethiopian staple, than by his ever he desires, and has held his present powild goose defence of the veriest little demagogue in the State, and the vainest, self-be- jorities, ranging from five to puffed, silly coxcomb in the nation. Colfax above his party's strenth. This has resulted, may be a man of genius, but it is reserved to not from any want of devotion on his part the editor of the Journal to be the only man to Democracy, for he is as true to the cause in Indiana who has discovered that fact, and as a Christian martyr to his religion, and as we recommend that he immediately take out in his labors. letters patent for the discovery.

the existance of an erroneous opinion with a financial, educational, and agricultural intercertain incredulous class of citizens, with re- ests of the State. gard to the present as well as the future rapid gress by his fine business capacity, laborious growth of our city. Now we would recom- habits, and by a bold and fervid eloquence, mend all such who are willing to be set right peculiarly his own. on this subject, to drop in at the office of . The great North-West will second by ac-McKernan & Edgab, and they will agree clamation his nomination for the Vice Presidency. A FRIEND OF THE UNION. with us that the day is not far distant when Indianapolis will be a large and flourishing tonished to see the great run of business that Governor of the State. To say that he fully McKennan & Epoan are doing in real es- sustained his reputation as an orator is not tate. Their office appears more like a saying enough in praise of his address. It crowded auction room than anything we can was one of his master efforts, and its influonly confirming in public what had been se- Democracy. And it is not at all strangs that compare it to. We had not the most distant ence upon the minds of his auditors could be idea of the demand that is daily made at reason, first the State affairs of Indiana, then their office for real estate, until having called the slavery question, and finally the beauties upon them. We were informed by them of the Know Nothing organization. Those that the last four months exhibits an increase who were here at the time, remarked the in their sales over the corresponding months as marking as great a change in community, of last year of 400 per cent. And the num- since Hon. John Pettit, on his return from ber of vacant city lots sold by them during Washington, in 1854 attempted to give an the last four months, is over 300, besides a account or his stawardship in the Senate of large amount of improved city property, farm-

our city, and its further population.

of us an explanation, and accuses us of a lack nation. Judge Pettit was received with of "tact as a writer." To his request for an his neighbors why he had done as he had as explanation we have to say, that when he a Senator of the United States. becomes a member of the genuine Democrat- Now, Gov. Willard came forward to diswith that piebald party, and mass of political putrefaction and gangrene, known as the to our lack of tact as a writer, we confess the lie now have in him; and their detestation every political flag, until he has at last set- citizens of Lalayette on the occasion named. tled down upon the buzzard roost of Aboli-in this county, and will tell upon the whole tionism-about as sore-headed an individual canvass, in which our success is certain, berespectable party, and was compelled to take American. up his political abode with the fags and ends of all parties-the free niggers thrown in.

W. & H. Glenn.-These enterprising gen- Prison, says:

The Journal is right as to the judgment punishment. and taste of the Messrs, GLENN in their selections of stock. They are among the best merchants in the State. Their mammoth pose of nominating a candidate for Congress establishment in this city is doing a monster in the Seventh Congressional District of Inbusiness. And all this comes from their en- diana, will be held at Greencastle, on Thursterprise, honorable dealing, and efforts to By order of the Executive Committee, please all who patronize them.

BEAUTIFUL AND TBUE .- In an article in a recent number of Frazer's Magazine, this beautiful passage occurs : alphabet. It begins with a mother's look Clay party—men who scorned an alliance forbedrance—with handsfull of flowers in W. D. Reed, Lucien Anderson, Ben. Spalgreen and daisy meadows—with bird's nests ding, the talented young Fisk, of Covington. admired but not touched—with creeping ants, and almost imperceptable summets—with humming bees and glass behives—with and words to mature to acts of benevolence, to deeds of virtue, and to the source of all good, to God himself.

New Post-Offices.

Ullin, Pulaski county, Illinois; James B. Carlton, Postmaster. Roscoe Station, Winnebago county, Illinois; Reuben Adams, Postmaster. Howard, Howard cousty, Iowa; Wm. Hough, Postmaster.

Polk Precinct, Bremen county, Iowa, W. N. Gaines, Postmaster. New Briton, Hamilton county, Indiano; J. S. Tyson, Postmaster. Gillum, Jay county, Indiana; Geo. Fish,

Hector, Jay county, Indiana; Reu. Camp-O'TA letter from Berlin states that the Epigasu.-The Bosion Post perpetrates the following upon Botts and the Know No-

"D've think," quoth Ned, "that Botts will please. The Northern Hindon masses?"
"I think," quoth Jim, "a horse disease. In plenty good enough for asses." for The democrats of Virginia are to hold a State Convention at Richmond on the 28th Or John Minor Botts, has been nominated for the Presidency by the Know-Nothfeer The second trial of Baker for the mur-

the 28th inst.

(CT Susan and Kate Denin commenced an bave been detected in exacting ferriage from

The local of the Sentinel quotes a silly | Or The following article is copied from magraph from the Cincinnati Times, a "12th the Charlottesville, (Virginia) Jeffersonian of section," or "old line" paper, in which Mr. the 10th inst. It was evidently written by a and vain. We don't know who the author zealous admirer of Governor Wright. To of the Times article may be, but if that is his gratify the friends of the Governor we give Governor Wright of Indiana. Speculations on political topics are generally unprofitable, and the man who claims sagacity enough to predict with certainty the names of the next Democratic candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, displays more temerity than discretion. And yet the high reputation, commanding talent, and distinguished services of several eminent gentlemen in our awn State lead us to believe that Virginia will again, as of old, be the mother of Presidents. Should any one of Journal intended to be severe in the above our Statesmen be the choice of the National squib. He goes off like a popping cracker- Convention for the highest office in the gift fiz-fiz-che-bang! and down comes the of the people, it would be proper, both from a principle of justice, and from motives of 13th section editor of the Cincinnati Times, expediency, that the second honor should be ca-flummix. Our neighbor should not allow given to the great North-west, and especially himself to become so savage. It is exceedingly deleterious to his digestion. The Jour- the most prominent Democrat in that Statenal editor has doubtless been so long contem- a man who by the soundness of his faith, the plating his dimensions in a "Lafayette mir-

Colfax will no doubt reciprocate the small cultural Society at the State Fair, has acted favor of the Journal by a " pub. doc." or the in the East and South as a remembrancer of crossing for some of its friends. In the mean- there was no need of this, for he has long time, however, we would advise the gentle-known as one of most practically useful men he can make more just at present by specu- In his own State he can command what-

It is the effect of the just confidence which all classes have in his integrity and ability, We are aware, says the Locomotive, of and fitting recompense for his services to the Gov. Wright was distinguished in Con-

Gov. Willard's Speech.

The Court-house was well filled last night, We acknowledge that we were truly as- January 22d, to listen to the speech of Hon seen at every step, as he discussed with sober the United States, to his immediate neighbors and constituents. Then the "Star City Council" was in full blast, and its members This speaks well for the improvement of independent, impudent, and confident of the power of their dark organization to ride over every opponent at home, and with their GARBER, of the Madison Courier asks brethren elsewhere, to control the State and hisses and groans, and not permitted to tell ic household, and ceases to mingle and act cuss the same topics, and to speak in praise Black Republican, Know Nothing, Fusion but hung his tail for shame and kept silence. party, we will admit his right to question us. And at the close of the address, Judge Pettit "Catch old bitds with chaff, Mr. GARBER. As was called for with an earnestness and una-Courier editor has the advantage of us-he of the men, and the principles of the men having tried every "tact," and sailed under who would not permit him to address the tlemen are in full blast at No. 3 Ball's block. The female convicts present the shocking Their establishment was alive with ladies spectacle of a lawless gang of the most degrathroughout the day yesterday. Their stock ded of human beings, setting at defiance in a appears to have been selected with the great- great degree the authority of both Warden judgment and taste, and their prices are and Matron, and, for want of suitable cells wonderfully low. Give them a call .- La- where the greater offenders can be put away into solitary confinement, the lash is the only

> SHOCKING .- The Baltimore Patriot, describing the condition of the Maryland State

Congressional.

The Democratic Convention, for the pur-WM. M. FRANKLIN, Chairman.

Old Line Whigs.

In the recent Convention at Frankfort, we *Education does not commence with the Whig co-laborers—the very flower of the old -with a father's smile of approbation or a with back alley conclaves and garret caucussign of reproof—with a sister's gentle pres-sure of the hard, or a brothers's noble act of were the gallant Col. Preston, Judge Lusk, pleasant walks in shady lanes, and with lies, but as brothers and equals. They were thoughts directed in sweet and kindly tones, given to understand their claims and merits should have full consideration, and that in the distribution of offices and honors, there should ue no old party tests, and no going back of the elections of 1855. All who came to the rescue of the Democratic party, and The following named new postoffices have all who in the hour of darkness and gloom, been established, and the following persons threw themselves into the glorious cause of appointed Postmasters: equal claims upon the gratitude of the De-

Preston, the acknowledged leader and representative of the old line whig regiment, was offered any position he might desire.-He declined the post of State Elector, but has promised to canvass the State wherever his services may be needed or desired. He and five other old line whigs have been appointed delegates to the National conven-

These gratifying facts we wish borne in mind by the old liners of this region of the State. - Berdstown (Ky.) Gas.

OT The Legislature of New York has public debt of Rusisa has been increased since passed a law that no religious or benevolent society shall receive any bequest or devise, the commencement of the war by 326 millous the annual income of which is over $10,000. and it must have been made at least two months before the death of the testator. In no case shall the bequest be more than onefourth of the estate.

> Two persons returning from prayer meeting, near Keokuk, Iowa, were recently attacked and devoured by wolves, GROUNDS OF DIVORCE .- A divorce was recently granted to a woman in Indiana, on the ground that her husband had cold feet! Decidedly cool!

OT The readers of the Lafavette Journal der of the notorious Bill Poole is set down for are doubtless vastly interested in a discussion carried on in its columns between two preachers, Revs. G. W. CRAWFORD and El-GTAt the approach of Christmas, tarkies der T. L. BRECKENRIDGE. When preachers sold in the market of San Francisco, at $10 disagree where shall we go for "more light?"

Some of the wharf-rats at St. Louis, engagement at Richmond, Va., on the 15th the sucker boys, crossing over on the ice to

TUESDAY MORNING, JAN. 29, 1856.

Congressional Convention. At a meeting of the delegates of the 6th Congressional District, at the State-House, or the 8th day of January, 1856, Thursday, the 12th day of June, 1856, was fixed for the meeting, at the city of Indianapolis, of a Congressional Convention, for the nomination of a Democratic candidate to represent said district; and the Secretary was ordered to give notice thereof in the Indianapolis State

Notice is, therefore, hereby given, that a convention of the delegates for the 6th Congressional District in the State of Indiana, 1856, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of making such nomination; and the Democrats of the several counties, composing said district, are requested to send the number of delegates to which they were entitled at the late Democratic State Convention. JOHN SLATER, Chie.

T. A. McFarland, Sec'v.

( Notice is hereby given that at the meeting of the Delegates of the Sixth Connominated by the Delegates from the 5th of the said Judicial Circuit.

JOHN SLATER, Chairman. T. A McFARLAND, Societary.

pleased that we dissented from the views of The gag law has been applied this week, their State Central Committee in their de- and under its operation, there has been no nunciations of our foreign born citizens. We speaking. Vote, vote, vote has been the repeat that we do most decidedly dissent order of the day. from all such wanton attempts to prejudice better than I ever saw him. He has met our native born population against those of with a warm greeting from the Democratic foreign birth. We shall not waste time to members of the House, among whom he state the reasons why it is unjust and impol- justly ranks for his ability, energy, and unitic to make invidious distinctions and castes swerving Democracy is, that, as it says, we have committed our- than he has been for many months. selves in favor of that clause of our State Constitution which confers the right of suffrage upon the man who renounces all alle- The first number of the thirty-fourth volgiance to every foreign prince and potentate ume of this, the oldest and most excellent who swears to support the Constitution of the religious paper in the Union, comes to us this and who has been one year a resident of the its typography and mechanical execution .-United States, and for six months a resident The Observer is edited by SIDNEY E. MORSE.

fied that the Central Fusion Committee open. of certain religionists, who assume to them vote with the Fusion party on the ground Christ calls them and sends them upon the of his natural opposition to the institution of sole mission of freeing the slaves of the slavery. No anti-Nebraska speeches made South, acting as guardians for the citizens of to him will induce him to desert his Demo- Kansas, or lobbying in legislative halls for cratic friends. Stand to your doctrines, gen- the passage of an unconstitutional liquor tlemen; carry out your Know Nothing sen- law :

as ever by his fact tacked himself out of a cause men will hear and think.—Lafayette error or are now dishonest political change- it produces in the human soul.

Bagatelle vs. Argument. of the Fusion State Central Committee. We curse to the communities which cherish them. feel much gratified that this precious docu- fall of man and its consequences; they deny ment has been presented to the public. Its the right of God to visit the iniquities of the as to convince every candid reader that it is man to seat himself proudly on a throne and validated our strictures. It is sometimes murmur at their lot, to envy and hate, and sumed by that ill-considered effusion. The compromise in the work of reform, demand-Journal may yet find out that the Sentinel systems to which great evils are incident.— will have wind enough to give it and its aling elections. Our fortress can stand the pear to the eye, they will be found when be fired at its walls. A woolly ball makes envying, jealousies, division, and every evil but a slight impression upon a tower of work.

IOWA DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION .-The State Convention of the Democracy of that they have caused the division of our lar-Iowa, held on the 8th inst., nominated Geo. gest ecclesiastical bodies; that they are be-W. McCleary, of Louisiana county, for Sec- ginning to undermine our institutions for the retary of State; James Poland, of Davis, spread of the gospel among the destitute at home and abroad; that they are sowing the Auditor; George Paul, of Johnson, Trea- seeds of infidelity and irreligion in districts surer; JAMES BAKER, of Lucas, Attorney formerly distinguished for their morality and General; J. C. Hall, James Grant, D. O. orthodoxy; and that, after weakening, one FINCE, and A. H. PALMER, Presidential Elec- by one, all the bonds, political, commercial, tors. W. F. Coelbaugh, B. Kenn, General social, and religious, which unite the different RANSEY, T. S. WILSON, C. J. McFarland, parts of our land to each other, they now seriously threaten the severance of that Union Captain Evans, D. H. Solonon, and Mr. which is the glory of our country and the WAILING were chosen delegates to the De- hope of mankind-the Union of the Amerimocratic National Convention.

What they Aim At.

Mr. H. J. RAYMOND, a leader of the Black Republicans, the editor of the New York Times, and Lieutenant Governor of New America ... York, in a recent lecture in Boston, frankly Australia. admitted in the following words, that the objects and aims of the Black Republicans and Abolitionists are indentical. He said: "We had had now, therefore, the right to say that, claration, persist in denying the sameness of pond. "Republican" and Abolition purposes?

THE PROBLETTORY LIQUOR LAW IN NEW anapolis on the 22d February. Some of the BRUNSWICK .- At a meeting of fifteen hundred fusion editors are advocating the holding of inhabitants of Frederickstown, on the 19th the Republican State Convention on the same inst., the Mayor presiding, resolutions con-demnatory of the Prohibitory Liquor Law a few days. If not, we shall take it for were carried by a vote of five to one. Speeches granted that the Know-Nothings have made were made on both sides. The proceedings all out of the Temperance question that they were harmonious, and conducted with much think they will be able to, and therefore, folgood feeling, closing with three cheers for the rier, are disposed now coolly to kick it aside for some other hobby .- Lafayette American .

DAN RICE is performing at the Boston GTA convention of Fusionists is called at

From Washington. Correspondence of the Indiana State Sentinel.

WASAINGTON, Jan. 24, 1856. Etitors Sentinel :- The withdrawal of Mr. Richardson by himself and the Democrats, was done with the sincere desire that would lead to a speedy organization of the House, by forcing the candidates of the other two parties to follow Mr. R.'s example, and withdraw their names from the contest. It was believed that such a course on their part would ensure the organization of the House this week, but the Black Republicans have decided that they prefer Banks and disorganization, to the election of any other will convene at the city of Indianapolis, at the case. The Democrats have acted magman in their ranks. This is the true state of nanimously in the matter. The people can now decide who are the disorganizers who the people's money doing nothing. Among the most important items in last week's debate was the announcement of Mr. Harris, of Illinois, that he was authorized by Gen. Jessup to state that he was present when Mr. Clay made his speech on the Missouri compromise line, in the House of Representatives, and took notes of the speech, which are now in his possession, and that Mr. Clay spoke earnestly against the adoption of gressional District, at Indianapolis, on the the line. This point was also touched by Mr. 12th day of June, 1856; there will also be Humphrey Marshall, of Ky., and he showed from the debate on that occasion that Mr. Judicial Circuit of the State of Indiana, a tion whatsoever upon the Territories or State. Democratic candidate for Prosecuting Attor- This position vindicates Mr. Clay's consistency, for, it will be recollected, he was the leading spirit in the Senate, in 1850, in advocating the non-interference doctrine, which leaves the people of a Territory free to mandends of the Journal affects be are their own domestic affairs as to them are determined to waste the public time and

The health of Mr. Dunn, of Indiana, his numerous friends will be glad to learn, is

PINCKNEY. New York Observer.

Inited States and of the State of Indiana, week greatly enlarged and most beautiful in and is a bold, independent and able journal, We boldly meet the issue, and declare that and as it is the largest newspaper in the world, we are not in favor of any change at present the subscription price, $2 50 a year in ador at any future time, of this feature of our vance, may be considered very low. The State Constitution. No evils have grown out Observer is published in New York, and orof its existence in this State. We have al- ders for it should be addressed to SIDNEY E. ways observed that the Fusionists are ready Morse & Co. The following extract which and willing to seek and to use the vote of a we make from an article in the last number. foreign born citizen whenever he can be in. shows that the editor is not tinctured with duced to vote their ticket. We were grati- the fanaticisms, nor enamored of the tactics ly declared their hostility to the foreigner, selves the title of "moral reformers," and for the reason that it will show to every for- would coerce men to believe in their dogmas, eign voter, who are and who are not, his real and convert the world by legislation. We friends. We hope to hear no more appeals commend the extract to those political preachto the liberty-loving German to come up and ers and religious bigots who imagine that timents, but deal candidly with the foreigner. We believe that Christ came into the world At our leisure we may take the labor to to reform the world-to des'roy intempe show to the people who were the men who the works of the devil; and to convert this placed in the State Constitution that section earth into a happier paradise than that from which defines the rights of the foreign citi- which Adam was expelled; and we believe he zen. It was the joint work of both of the relied for success wholly on exciting in the hearts great political parties in 1850, and some men of individual men that intense love of God and who are now Know Nothings and Fusionists, Gospel. We believe that a deep humility, a stultify themselves and their own acts by de- profound sense of self-abasement, is the uniclaiming upon this topic. They must either form accompaniment of true Christian love, admit that they were then the advocates of and is necessary to the perfection and highest exaltation of the virtues and joys which

We believe that Socialism, Fourierism, Abolitionism and all the various isms and schemes for the reform of the great evils of The State Journal is quite mistaken in re- society on other than Bible principles, will not gard to our condition in reference to the call only prove a miserable failure, but an awful The projectors of these schemes ignore the positions, its impudent and arrogant assump- fathers upon the children; they maintain the tions and charges are so obvious and flagrant inherent injustice of all native inequalities in a sort of death yell of the Fusion party. to demand of God and man an acknowledg-The Journal strung together our words of ment of his equal right to rule; they encoudenunciation, as if that mode of writing in- rage men placed in subordinate stations to violate the obligations which God imposes much easier to evade than to answer argu on them in their relations to their fellow men; ments; but we do not think the Journal has they propose to reform the world, not by beweakened the force of our objections by its ginning with individuals and advancing step attempt to play upon dismembered words.

Indeed, we had a more exalted opinion of wards; they love to manifest their virtue by the sagacity of the Journal, than to have sup- publicly rebuking the sins of others rather posed that it would have undertaken the than by confessing and repenting of their hopeless task of defending the positions as- own; they are impatient of all delay and all lies a sharp race for the victory at the com- and however fair the fruit may at first apeffects of all such fusion bomb shells as may and bitterness—wrath, strife, evil speaking,

It must be obvious to observing men, that the principles to which we have referred have been spreading, for several years among the can States.

The "American Almanac," gives the following as the aggregate population of the OJ J. W. Wilbank, postmaster at Owenwhen we had the power of government, we shhuld ton, Owen county, Kentucky, committed abolish slavery in every part of the State whether that place, about two weeks since. He had North or South." Will the organs of "Re- been missing for some days and was found publicanism," in the face of this explicit de- by some men while getting ice out of the

The State Temperance Committee have called a convention to be held at Indi-

Iowa City on the 22d of Febuary.

Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad.

We are under obligations to one of the principal officers of the Cincinnati, Hamilton written in compliance with a request of the a rate of speed. It is as follows: CINCINNATI, Jan. 14, 1856. GENTLEMEN .- I thank you for the favora- mon enemy. Therefore, ble notice taken of our Road in your paper of the 5th inst., under the head of "Ohio Railway System," and cheerfully comply with your request to furnish a statement of our arrangements for preventing accidents on Mr. Stephens hoped that the gentleman the road. In connection, permit me first to would be permitted to state the facts upon say that the road is well constructed in all which be made the announcement that we were ts parts-no expense having been spared to render it safe-especially the bridges. It is fenced from Cincinnati to Dayton, and has the requisite cattle guards for protection against laid on the table

With a view to guard against accidents, no ments under this re-olution before making each trip over the road. Eve- tor, Shorter and Porter, one each. tire road is passed over by men either on foot precisely as the above. or in hand cars. The number of men stationed on the road to repair track and guard against obstructions Among the many conflicting averages one to cach mile. At all the to give notice of approaching trains. The bridges, which are numerous, have men sta- preparation in refi tioned at them, whose duty it is, before a at any time been contemplated, much le train passes, to test every iron rod, and to the subject of Cabinet consultation, though frequently examine the nuts; also to pass Government has demanded the recall of motive, to watch for fire. The foundations recruiting for the Crimea. are carefully examined after overy slight. It can be as confidently stated that there has room for doubt always take the safe course," all the prestige of the occasion preventative is worth a pound of cure," we probably. expense of all that is requisite for safety, to paying large sums for destruction of human life, and for broken limbs. In only one instance has there been an accident on this road attended with any serious consequences. executive session, yesterday, Lord John Rus-By this accident occurred the only death in which was then submitted to Mr. Everett, Secour cars, and the only broken limb among retary of State. It declares that the British passengers. The death was that of a very Government intends s.rictly to carry out the young child, which lost its life by grown per- Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and to assume no sovmay rest assured that no care or expense will ed. be wanting that will in any way tend to his of the recent outrage in Kansas, announced by safely conveyed, demonstrates fully the ad- and protect the territory from the Miss vantages of that principle.

Consistency-Temperance-Governor inevitable in a short time

ished at the course of some of the Fusion change the aspect of our relations abroad sin papers of this State in regard to Lieut. Gov. the last President's Message. Willard. Why is it that a universal howl of Mr. Boyce's resolution, offered in the He derision and contumely has been made to to-day, declaring our relations with Great echo through the State on account of a pledge ain of so critical a character as to indicate having been made by Willard, that if elected we may be on the eve of startling events, Governor of the State, he would not use in-scut or knowledge of the Executive, but was toxicating drinks? Why is it that misrepre- Boyce's independent position, sentation and abuse must follow every man of the opposition party, who occupies a prom- ual effort was made to repeal the resoluinent political position? We claim to be, cluding all debate during the present personally, a national Old Line Whig, and until a Speaker is elected. The Home our sympathies cannot be expected to incline voted twice for Speaker, the last, or 126 to Gov. Willard, put as long as we wield a resulting as follows: Banks, 94; Ocr. 64: pen or control an independent paper, we will ler, 25; Scattering, 12 Necessary to a expose and oppose inconsistency in any party. If, as we believe, Gov. Willard has been grossly slandered as regards his temperance habits, and the public mind unjustly poisoned day elected President of the O. & P. Ra in that respect, then such a pledge was pro- A resolution was likewise passed ununimo per and right to place him in a cerrect posi- ly favorable to the immediate completion of tion before his friends and the people of In- bridge over the Alleghany river, making a con But the inconsistency of the course purlieve it to be, and which it is loudly and 'm. with a large majority of the people of the counsion papers; if it be the virtue which they che restoration of that restriction. say it is, to abstain from the use of intoxica- 2d. That the restriction should be restored. ting drinks-if it is all important, especially as a proper vindication of the wisdom and pashould be met (if these papers are consistent) Union We rejoice to see it advocated, but we say but until the restriction is restored, it is owed also, "consistency thou art a jewel," found as a solemn duty to the past and present and of temperance. - Connersville Telegraph.

Senator Douglas. His Honor, Mayor Castle, entertained an elegant party of friends and guests at his res- majority. idence on the west side, last evening. There sphere. Pleasure beamed on every face, and American people, injurious to every section of the Union, and that it ought not to be counte-Among the guests, we were delighted to see nanced. ing much as he was wont a few years since, that in the opinion of the House the repeal of from his late severe indisposition of an effec. can people. tion of the throat; thanks to the skillful treatment of our eminent resident surgeon. Dr. Ackley. Mr. Douglas will probably leave for Washington next week; the announcement of which will give great pleasure to all who honor a bold, fearless, upright and patriolic statesman .- Cleveland Plaindealer.

RELATIONS WITH GREAT BRITAIN .- The Texas. At Austin they were Washington Union makes the following im- inches thick. portant announcement with reference to our | The Sea Serpent had appeared off Corp relations with Britain : "We think we can safely assure the editors of Advices from the Rio Grande report the Mexi-

the Intelligencer that no such question as the can frontier quiet. suspension of diplomatic intercourse with Great | New York, Jan. 26 .- The steamship Her Britain has been before the cabinet. Our rela- mann sailed to-day for Southsmpton and Havre, tions with that government are certainly delicate, with 34 passengers. and, perhaps, critical, but the proposed with-drawal of our minister is not amongst the evi-dences going to indicate the delicacy of those. The steamship Golden Gate left San Francisrelations. If we might indulge in a conjecture co on the 5th inst, for Panama, with $1,300,000 on so grave a matter, we should venture the in treasure, and 500 passengers suls implicated in the recruitment of soldiers for number of passengers was cut through by the the Crimea, furnishes the only foundation for the floating ice and sank near the month of the East statement quoted above. Whilst we desire by river. Britain, we cannot deny that there are serious boats to the dock questions of difference between the two govern- Carrago, Jan. 26.—At 7 o'clock this morning ments which ought to be thoughtfully consid the thermometer stood 18 degrees above zero. ered by those members of Congress who are ob- Louisville, Jan. 26 .- It has been snowing structing the organization of the House."

duction, the Western Christian Advocate says: Mrs. Albright, was drawned. The others were "No charges have been preferred against Bishop Hamline. A member of the Cincinnati conference, for making statement on regard to 07 Legal proceedings have been comthe Bishop's character, was brought before his menced against the highest Know Nothings in himself expelled from the Methodist Episcopal What a scandal to the Order, says the Union, Church and Ministry by the Conference, after a of that place, if one who has administered Church and Ministry by the Comerciae, and a of that place, it one will be trial of three days; only two members of the so many solemn charges to initiates—talked conference, out of nearly two hundred, voted in so much of the virtue of true Americansthe negative, which they did because they thought the punishment too severe for the false. the vices of foreigners—and of the war upon hood proved. Will the members of the press the Bible by Roman Catholics-should be who have given currency to the slander please proven guilty of the helnous offense above publish the foregoing?

Nothing has been heard of them.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. Hors:-Mr. Boyce moved the following preamble and resolution: & Dayton Railroad for a communication Whereas, our relations with Great Britain and of the most threatening character, indicating that we may be upon the eve of startling events, Cincinnati Gazette of the 5th inst., stating the and whereas, it is the imperative duty of the circumstances under which that road is ena- House at this juncture of imment peril not to bled to run its frains so safely and at so high abdicate its great mission, but fulfill it by organizing, if possible, on such a basis as will give peace to our distracted country, and enable it to present an undivided from to the con-

Resolved. That the conservative elements of this House unite in severe effort to elect a Speaker, who will represent the great ideas of peace for ourselves and the sword for the stran-on the eve of a war. If it were so, he knew nothing about it. Objections were made to an explanation, and on motion of Mr. Morgan, the resolution was

Mr. McMullen made an ineffectual effect to The best feeling towards the Company pro- recind the resolution which precludes debate. vails among the owners of land on the line Mr. Tyson offered a resolution that any canof the road, and they are always ready to didate for Speaker who shall at any time hereguard its interests and safety. The road is after receive the highest number of votes from run with safety at a higher speed than ordi- a quorum, though less than a majority of all nary, owing to its substantial construction and the votes polled, shall be declared elected; pronary, owing to its substantial construction and vided, that the Speaker so chosen and each of its freedom from short curves and high the other candidates shall have the appointgrades. For three-fourths of its length it is ment of the Standing Committees in proportion straight, and either level or under ten feet to the number of the votes respectively receivgrade to the mile. For the remainder of the ed, but no candidate whose vote shall be less listance the maximum grade is twenty feet. than 25, shall be entitled to any of the appoint care or expense is spared in obtaining the best . The resolution was laid on the table, and the machinery, the wheels and axels of which House again voting for Speaker, the ballot remachinery, the wheels and axels of which are thoroughly examined by competent men sulting as follows: Banks 91; Richardson 67; Fuller 29; Campbell (of Ohio) 5; and Penningry morning before a train is in motion the en- Two more ballots were had, the last resulting

The House then adjourned. WASHINGTON, A

sent to either House of Con through them immediately after each loco- Crampton and the British Consuls engaged in freshet. The bridges over the Great Miami been no purpose, in or out of the Cabinet, lookriver at Hamilton and Dayton, have a night as well as day watch. Printed rules for run-But the great glory of the Indiana Journal daily improving. He is now much better a ning trains and the management on the line peace are entertained by the British Minister, of the road, are in the hands of every em- and England is preparing the largest fleet ever ployee, and are rigidly enforced. Among floated for operations against Russia, in the these rules especial attention is directed to Spring. Louis Napoleon is still anxious to exthat which provides that "where there is tricate himself from the war, having obtained Acting on the principle that "an ounce of tion of slavery in the Territories, for Thursday have always considered it better to incur the Mr. C. R. Singleton, a member of the last sons falling upon it. No human skill or fore- ereignty, directly or indirectly, in Central sight could have done more than was done America. The Senate has removed the injuncto guard against this accident. The traveler tion of secrecy, and the letter will be publish-

The experience of the past four years since The Senators to day informally conferred a the road was first opened, during which time to the policy of advising the President to send a million and a half of passengers have been a military force to Kansas to preserve the peace

Southern Senators predict that civil war is The negotiations between Great Britain p We have been as much mortified as aston- the last steamer, and nothing has occurred to still open, dispatches having been sent out by

Wasmington, Jan. 25 -Horst. - An

The House then adjourned

Piresucas, Jan. 25 .- George W. Cass was nection with the Central Railroad.

sued by the Fusion press, is intended as the Horse-Mr. Dunn offered a resolution declar chief topic of our article. If temperance is ring-First, that no man shall be elected Speathe great boon and blessing which we bester who does not fully and heartily sympathize moderately claimed to be by these same Fu-Compromise, or who will not exert himself for that a public officer should be of temperate triotism of the great statesmen who imposed it habits and sober deportment, then the pledge as a necessary and certain measure of reviving of Gov. Willard to the people of Indiana, harmony and concord among the States of the with a shout of approval and rejoicing, in-stead of a tirade of denunciation and abuse. unwise, and unjust to every section of the Union not among many of the pretended advocates future, to steadily and firmly persist in efforts to that end. The first resolution was rejected by one majority. The house then preceded to vote upon

The second resolution was adopted by one was no cold formality, no restraint, none of Mr. Fuller, of Pennsylvania, offered a resoluthe mauvaise honte of the bean monde, nor the tion declaring that any agitation of the slavery killing etiquette of the same fashionable question is unwise and unjust to a portion of the opinion that the action of our govornment in seeking the recall of Mr. Crampton, and the con- while on a passage this morning with a large

Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, of Illinois, lookMr. Meachaw offered a resolution declaring when in the full enjoyment of excellent the Missouri restriction was an example of the health. We were pleased to learn that the uselessness of a factious agitation of the slavers distinguished Senator is rapidly recovering question, and unwise and unjust to the Ameri-

This was adopted-year 108 : nave 93. The House then adjourned. The Southern Mail. BALTIMORE New Orleans papers of S.

The weather continu Christi.

this correction to avoid any unfounded appre- The passengers were all saved by getting on hensions of an impending difficulty with Great the ize, from whence they were taken in small here all day and still continues. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26 .- This afternoon, as a BISHOP HAMLINE .- A statement having party of gents and ladies were upon the ice on been circulated by the Cincinnati papers in the Delaware, opposite the upper part of the regard to an alleged investigation of charges city, a sleigh containing a gentleman and four against Bishop Hamline, of that city, for se- ladies broke through, and a widow lady named conference, his statements proved false, and he Rochester, New York, for rape or seduction.

A carriage and pair of horses were The telegraph informs us of the death stolen at Oquawka, Ill., a week or two ago. of Silsner, the Yankee Comedian, at San Francisco.